Sexual Conduct

Understanding Your Rights and Navigating the Process

Who Should Join Us?

- Parents of school-aged youth, ages 12-17, residing in Henrico, Chesterfield, Richmond and surrounding areas.
- Persons seeking to obtain an understanding of sexual harassment and behaviors that may contribute to violations of the school Code of Conduct (to include bullying, substance use, social media, sexting, etc.).
- Parents seeking to obtain an A-Z guide in understanding the Commonwealth's Attorney, Special Victims Unit, and the Civil/Administrative legal process when reporting, processing, and making charging decisions.
- Persons seeking to understand when does Child Protective Services (CPS) get involved, what's involved in a CPS investigation, and what's the outcome of a CPS investigation.
- Persons seeking to explore advocacy services, disability/IEP, court involved youth, and various community resources.
- Students, Teachers, Counselors, Clergy, and all who may benefit.

Learn from our Partners of Excellence

While the "MeToo" movement has focused on sexual harassment in the workplace, sexual harassment begins much earlier, and flirting to one may be considered predatory to another.
